Spring Festivals Kick-off

In a few weeks, as we head out of April, our community will celebrate spring, the arts, and our charitable community as two events come together. In the past, the Scotland Memorial Fund Run and Spring Arts Festival have ushered in Spring. Now they join to formally unveil Spring.

On Friday, April 27th, the festivities begin with a downtown evening of music and a movie. The night kicks-off with The Laurinburg Chamber presenting its first Laurinburg After Five concert of the year. Unlike the others planned for the Morgan Complex, this first concert will take place Downtown. The concert features Hip Pocket, and will start at 6:00 p.m. Following the concert, Scotland County Parks and Recreation will be showing the movie, A Dog's Purpose, on the wall at the Art Garden.

On Saturday, April 28th, the Scotland Memorial Foundation will hold their annual FunD-Run-4-Life and the Arts Council and the City of Laurinburg will host the Spring Art Festival – both sharing the downtown area.

The running events will commence downtown with a 5K at 8:30 a.m. At about 9:30 a.m. there will be a 1-mile fun run/walk. And, of course, there will be the popular “Kids Zone” Play area.

After a morning of exercising the Spring Art Festival also kicks-off downtown on Main Street. The festival will include art exhibits, street artists, live music, food, a beverage garden, and a chance to try your hand at different artistry. The festival will also serve as the formal unveiling of the new art pieces being displayed at the Laurinburg Art Park located at the corner of Church and Main.

Spring Festival Season Continues

LaurelFest

Few festivals capture the heart and soul of a community the way LaurelFest does. Now in its 17th year, what started out as almost a neighborhood gathering has now turned into a community ritual, while maintaining the neighborhood feel.

This year's festivities will be held on the grounds of the Laurel Hill Community Center on Friday, May 11th and Saturday May 12th with the grounds open from noon to 8 p.m. on Friday and 9 a.m. – 5 p.m. on Saturday.

The festival will include a wide array of musical acts, pony and camel rides, a train, a petting zoo, inflatable slides, and other activities all open during the event — all at no cost. Food vendors will offer everything from collards, fish, and barbecue to funnel cakes and ice cream.

Keeping its tradition of honoring a different group each year, the event will nod to the wonderful teachers in our community. The Laurel Hill Community Center is located in the former Laurel Hill school building on Church Street and Parsonage Avenue. For more information visit www.laurelfest.com or call 910-462-2424.

Bike To Build

The weekend continues to roll forward on May 12th when Habitat for Humanity of Scotland County hosts its 15th annual Bike to Build. The event will feature a 64, 32, 21 and 10.5 mile bicycle route as well as a 10k run, and a 5k run/walk.

As always, all the proceeds from the event will be put toward the organization building homes in the county. For more information visit www.biketobuild.org

Chalk Banks Challenge

Chalk Banks Equals Great Fun

The series of spring festivals conclude with the Chalk Banks Challenge and Water Festival. The fun will be held on Saturday, May 19th from 9:00 a.m. – 2:00 p.m. at the Chalk Banks Access Area - Lumber River State Park in Wagram, NC. Contestants may compete in raft, recreational canoe or kayak races, a 5K trail run, youth run, a men’s high heel sprint sponsored by Jerry’s Deli, and much more. This year, cash prizes will be awarded to the winners in many events including $150 for first place the group raft race divisions.

A Scotland County tradition, raft races will be divided into three divisions: group (two or more people) youth, group adult, and single person rafts. All rafts must be homemade and may not be motorized in any way. The day provides an opportunity to visit this beautiful state park and enjoy the fun. In addition to the events the festival will also include kid’s games, inflatables, train rides, canoe rides, vendors and more.

According to Whit Gibson, chairman of the Lumber River State Park Citizens Advisory Committee, the homemade raft race is the highlight of the day. “We always have over a dozen rafts compete,” says Gibson. “Now just because they start, doesn’t mean they finish. Therefore, before they start, we give out a number of honors including ‘most creative’ and ‘most embarrassing to your 8th grade science teacher.’”

For more information on the canoe & kayak races, please contact Mickey Turlington of the North Carolina Canoe Racing Association at 910-904-1578 or by email at watersafari@aol.com. For 5K information contact Edward Locklear at elocklear@scotlandcounty.org. For raft or overall event information, contact the Scotland County Tourism Development Authority at 910-277-3149.
